Travel Egypt's Wonders Unending

Wake with the wonders of ancient Egypt on a trip where amazing but short journey from Alexandria goes to the Pyramids of Giza to practically sailing back across the peace of the Nile. The tour focuses on those who want all the nationally and globally treasured monuments to Egypt in comfort and style. An experienced guide accompanies dear history enthusiasts, adventure enthusiasts, and curious tourists into Egypt's fascinating past: magic culture, bewitching history, and breathtaking scenery.

Visit the Awe-Inspiring Pyramids of Giza

Your travelers enjoy a comfortable transfer from Alexandria to Cairo in modern, fully air-conditioned vehicles. On arrival, Cairo awaits a breathtaking experience in the majestic Giza Pyramids-one of the Seven Wonders of the ancient world and an undeniable testament to the ingenuity within ancient Egyptian civilization.

Stand before the entrance to the Great Pyramid of Khufu, the largest and most famed pyramid, built about 4,500 years ago.

Marvel at the Pyramid of Khafre, which still retains some of its original casing stones at the top.

Explore the Pyramid of Menkaure, the most diminutive of the three, but still very interesting nonetheless. Look into the closeness of the great Legendary Sphinx, the enigmatic guardian of the pyramids with a lion's body and a pharaoh's face.

To further engage the visitor into the experience, your guide will provide fantastic insights as to the history, myth, and construction of these old structures.

Sail along the Legendary Nile River

After taking in the personal history and magnificence of the pyramids, continue to what is perhaps the most enduring feature of Egypt: the Nile. The next stop on your journey is a brief but enjoyable felucca ride on the Nile's waters for around 30 minutes. This will be an authentic Egyptian experience as you sail from Cairo's land fame to its water fame. As you drift along the gentle waters, a view of parts of the city will definitely be a refreshing alternative to the usual sights of the roads and stream of traffic. The Nile has been the lifeblood of Egypt for centuries, but here you'll experience a short but peaceful ride, letting you soak in the historical and cultural significance.

Savoring Real Egyptian Food

You will also relish a sumptuous lunch at a local restaurant, which has been very carefully chosen and serves authentic Egyptian dishes. The tastes can range from the smell of freshly baked bread and succulent grilled meats to aromatic rice coupled with traditional Egyptian cakes. It is, of course, an experience one would cherish as it introduces one to the very rich flavors and traditions of Egyptian gastronomy.

Personalized Experience with a Private Guide

The private tour guide accompanying you on the trip will have illuminating insights regarding the great history and culture of Egypt. This tour, however, is not linked with a fixed itinerary, but extra request was flexible enough to include a shopping tour of Cairo or Alexandria at their request. You will enjoy busy markets, pick up all those distinctive souvenirs, and enjoy really vibrant local markets for which Egypt is famous.

Itinerary

Day Trip to the Pyramids & the Nile

This is the start of an exciting day for you, beginning with the pick-up from your place in Alexandria. Enter your modern, air-conditioned vehicle, as you begin the journey to Cairo, and the splendid view will be offered to you. The entity will move with you on this enchanting outing, sharing with you many things on Egypt's grand history and culture. During the trip, your experience as it guides you through vibrant towns to lush green fields along the banks of the mighty Nile Delta-and a glimpse of the daily life of Egyptians: this travel will be a great amazing experience for itself.

As you enter the gates that led you into the city of Cairo, your first destination is the Pyramids of Giza. This pyramid is one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World, and it is indeed an extremely wonderful work of engineering constructed by humankind. The pyramids date back to around 4,500 years and stand testament to the power and perhaps sophistication of a civilization like the Egyptians.

Tour the Incredible Pyramid of Khufu—largest and most enigmatic of the three pyramids:

Behold the well-conserved, well-kept Pyramid of Khafre, with a remnant of beautiful limestone casing at its apex.

Visit the Pyramid of Menkaure, the smallest but equally fascinating with its unique granite finishing.

View the Sphinx, which seems to be made of limestone, has the body of a lion, and a head of a pharaoh, and symbolizes strength and wisdom.

Your tour guide will tell you interesting stories about their construction, history, and the myths that surround these magnificent structures. Pose for great pictures in front of these wonders of the ancient world.

After that pyramids tour, relax while drifting on the Nile for half an hour in a felucca. Enjoy Cairo's views while gliding smoothly along the water in this classical wooden vessel. Sit back and unwind with the wind in your hair. The whole adventure is made all the more enticing when the location is a glide over the Nile. While the familiar high-rises, modern-day architecture, and riverside landmarks glare in stark contrast against ancient relics, this sailing over the Nile can hold one enthralled in a dream.

You will have a hearty Egyptian meal in a restaurant we suggest. Grilled meat, rice, fresh bread, and local specialties are some items you would taste, reflecting Egypt's beautiful culinary tradition. Koshari, an Egyptian specialty that mixes rice, lentils, and pasta with spicy tomato sauce; or molokhia, a green soup that's eaten in Egypt with either bread or rice, will probably be among the signatures of that restaurant. Such a break probably meets the requirement for some enjoyment of many flavors that have long settled into the culture of Egyptians.

You may also opt for a trip to some of Cairo's top local bazaars and markets. Get some crafted souvenirs; buy traditional jewelry and other treasures such as aromatic spices. Khan El Khalili Bazaar, one of the oldest markets in the Middle East, is the perfect stop where you shouldn't miss in getting authentic Egyptian handiworks. Fine wool carpets, superbly wove.
