Sokhna and Cairo

Dive into the glory of ancient Egypt on a stunning tour from Sokhna Port to the Pyramids of Giza and Sakkara. History, culture, and adventure combine into a truly once-in-a-lifetime experience to view the most recognizable landmarks of Egypt in one day!

Giza Pyramids: Taking a Step Back

This is where the journey begins at the world-famous Pyramids of Giza, one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. It will have you awed before the Great Pyramid of Khufu, which stands and dwarfs the two others. Stand and marvel at the Pyramid of Khafre, the estate of limestone casing partially preserved, cast eyes upon the Pyramid of Menkaure, the smallest but equally interesting.

You cannot complete your expedition at the Giza Plateau without seeing the Great Sphinx, which is the legendary statue of a half-lion and half-human guarding the pyramids for millennia. An expert guide will share with you brain-tingling tales concerning the background and construction of these ancient wonders as you glean the richest knowledge about the lives of the pharaohs who built them.

Explore the Ancient Tombs of Sakkara

The Sakkara adventure continues after Giza, containing the Step Pyramid of Djoser, the oldest pyramid in Egypt. This impressive structure, which was constructed nearly 4,700 years ago, marks a significant turning point in the history of ancient Egyptian architecture. Sakkara is famous not only for its step pyramid but also with richly decorated tombs with carvings and inscriptions about daily life and religious beliefs in ancient Egypt.

Flavors of Egyptian Cuisine

During the tour, lunch will be enjoyed at a local-style Egyptian restaurant, with grilled meat, fresh salad, and aromatic rice dishes. What a beautiful way to wind down and enjoy Egypt's culinary gifts.
