Your Egyptian museum private day tour promises to be entertaining and enlightening as history and culture come into play. The first stop is the eminent Egyptian Museum of Cairo, housing an exceptional collection of ancient artifacts, including treasures belonging to the tomb of the young King Tutankhamun. You traverse through the hall filled with gigantic statues, magnificent jewelry, and mummies in splendid condition, understanding better the glory of the ancient Egyptian civilization. With your very own guide, one can learn about the stories behind these priceless items, bringing history back to life.

Next is the National Museum of Egyptian Civilization (NMEC), which is projected to be a unique and present-day experience that conserves Egypt's heritage from time immemorial to the present time. With the Royal Mummies Hall, the NMEC is where you can stand front-to-back with some of Egypt's mightiest pharaohs. Interactive exhibitions and well-curated displays showcase the evolution of Egyptian culture, art, and daily life over several millennia. Your guide will narrate the fascinating historical background, adding to your rich and educational experience.

Conclude your day perhaps by dropping in at GEM, the new Grand Egyptian Museum, or another of your specialized choices, such as the Coptic or Islamic Museum. The GEM will then hold the title of the largest archaeological museum in the world and is expected to provide a most incredible presentation of Egypt's ancient treasures and artifacts, some never seen before. Throughout your private tour, you will benefit from excellent transportation, professional commentary, and the freedom to explore at your own pace. This fantastic and immersive museum tour across Egypt is a perfect venture for the history lover and culture buff alike, very much interested in tracing back Egypt's vibrant history.

Tour from Alexandria to Cairo Museums

At sunrise, your private guide will greet you at your Alexandria hotel for a pleasant drive to Cairo in an air-conditioned vehicle. A scenic journey along the desert path leads you toward the center of Egypt's rich history and culture.

Commencing your tour of the museums at the National Museum of Egyptian Civilization, which is a modern specimen in itself, it covers Egyptian history from prehistoric to modern times. Walk through the Royal Mummies Hall where you will encounter great pharaohs like Ramses II and Queen Hatshepsut. Explore thousands of artifacts, interactives, and beautifully displayed exhibitions telling the story of Egyptian civilization throughout its different eras.

Next, pay a visit to the famed Egyptian Museum located in Tahrir Square. The Egyptian Museum houses the biggest collection of ancient Egyptian artifacts in the world. Be entranced by the treasures of King Tutankhamun, especially the renowned gold funeral mask, jewelry, and ceremonial objects. Walk through spacious halls filled with statues, sarcophagi, and ancient manuscripts that resurrect Egypt's past.

After an energetic morning of exploration, break for lunch in a local restaurant serving delicious Egyptian food.

From here, continue your tour with a visit to Abdeen Palace, one of the most fabulous presidential palaces in Egypt. This spectacular structure was home to Egyptian rulers and has now been converted into a museum showcasing an impressive collection of royal belongings, historical texts, and extravagant gifts presented by world leaders. Walk through the glorious halls, furnished with splendid chandeliers, European-style décor, and rare artifacts.

After enjoying this captivating journey through Egypt's rich past, relax as your guide and driver will take you back to your hotel in Alexandria. Enjoy the comfy drive while reflecting on the great history and culture you've explored the whole day.
