Everyday

Take the trip of a lifetime with serenity and unforgettable moments along the timeless Nile River aboard a traditional sailing vessel called a Felucca in Aswan. This peaceful ride provides a glimpse of the river itself and the different cultural history that has shaped life for thousands of years.

The soft breeze that greets you upon entering this classic wooden felucca will bring with it the scents of the river and the sounds of nature. You glide by the greenery of Elephantine Island, teeming with ancient ruins and historical artifacts, or explore the Botanical Gardens on Kitchener Island with their host of tropical plants and trees. The smooth gliding of the boat and endless views from the river will form an excellent frame for rest and reflection.

This experience is not just about the views; it's a chance to connect with the local culture. Your experienced felucca captain, often a local Nubian, will share fascinating stories and insights into the customs and traditions of the Nubian people, who have lived along the Nile for centuries. Hear about their deep connection to the river and the impact of this ancient waterway on their way of life.

Felucca Ride on the Nile in Aswan

Take a fantastic tour of the legendary Nile River with our Aswan Felucca Tour to explore the serene and historic beauty of this fabled Egyptian city. This non-noisy tour is organized by your professional Cairo Top Tours representative to the perfect mixture of natural splendor, cultural heritage, and timeless charm.

First, you will be picked up from your hotel and taken to the Nile River to board your traditional felucca, the classic wooden sailboat that for centuries has plied the Nile. You will glide over the smooth waters, seeing the sights of Elephantine Island, a hub of fascinating archaeological sites, including the Agha Khan Mausoleum, an imposing monument to a historical figure.

The tour shall visit Kitchener Island, aptly described as an idyllic oasis with the Botanical Gardens, among other highlights. It was named after Lord Kitchener, the former British Consul General of Egypt, and boasts a variety of both native and exotic plants. This is a haven for nature lovers and an excellent opportunity to sample the diversity of plant life in this unique environment.

While you sail across the tranquil river, the rhythmic sound of the felucca's sails with the gentle ripple of the water will let you relax and take in the serenity around you. This isn't just a tour of sightseeing; this is to breathe in the spirit of Aswan, mingle with its Nubian culture, and relive eternal moments of the Nile as the river has stood through the moments of Egyptian history.

Your felucca ride ends with a transfer back to your hotel or Nile cruise, filled with memories of a truly unforgettable experience. The beauty of the Nile, the serenity of the felucca ride, and the rich heritage of Aswan-all these will be etched in your mind long after your journey is over and will make this tour a highlight of your Egyptian adventure.
