Follow the enigmatic charms of Luxor from an angle generally not accustomed to tourists through a charming horse carriage tour in the historic streets of the city. The ride in a traditional horse-drawn carriage will be a pleasant one, so you can enjoy a leisurely trot past some of Luxor's most illustrious sights and absorb the vivid atmosphere and exuberant heritage of this ancient city. The tour will make for a serene yet delightful way to witness the beauty of Luxor, whether you're doing so under the glorious sunlight of a morning or while the sun is setting in all its glory over the Nile.

You will travel through the heart of the town, brushing past local markets teeming with life, through magnificent colonial buildings, and into charming back alleys bustling with daily activities. Also seen are the stunning Luxor Temple bathed in the evening light and the verdant Corniche bordering the Nile. In addition to this, the guide will narrate stories about the history, culture, and traditions of Luxor while you enjoy the ride.

This horse carriage tour is for visitors who wish to explore Luxor away from its famed temples and tombs.

This is a great way to engage with the local life of the city, enjoy a soothing ride, and acquire beautiful pictures displaying Luxor's timeless charm. Be it a history aficionado, or one looking just for a unique and romantic activity of sorts, the horse carriage tour guarantees that the experience will stay forever engraved in memory.

Itinerary

Luxor Tour by Horse Carriage

Ride through the heart of the city in a horse-drawn carriage which makes it all the more special and traditional by taking you to Luxor in the most enchanting way possible. Start at your hotel, where you will meet your positive guide and carriage driver. Then you move off onto the busy streets of Luxor, really seeing history and culture live and fresh.

You will ride along historic landmarks such as the Avenue of Sphinxes, which at one point linked the Karnak and Luxor Temples, and the Corniche El Nile Street, with spectacular views of the river. You will also visit snazzy markets filled with vendors who offer fresh fruits and vegetables, along with the oldest neighborhoods in Luxor, where you will see everyday Egyptian life unfold. An interesting stop is made at an authentic coffee house for relaxation, partaking in a genuine Egyptian drink, and savoring the city's ambiance.

As the tour draws to a close, you will ride back in your horse-drawn carriage viewing the last sights of enchanting Luxor streets before dropping off at your hotel. It makes for a fine combination of history, culture, and freshness, rendering it the ideal unforgettable way of seeing life in one of the most fascinating cities in Egypt.
