Dive into Cairo's Rich History: Egyptian Museum & Citadel Tour from Sokhna Port

Cairo's wonders await you on a thrilling day tour from Sokhna Port, where you'll sightsee two of the city's most emblematic sites: the Egyptian Museum and the Saladin Citadel. This adventure will take you through the corridors of Egypt's enchanting past, from pharaonic treasures to Islamic architectural wonders.

A Visit to the Egyptian Museum

The trip kicks off at the Egyptian Museum, housing the most extensive collections of antiquities of ancient Egypt in the world. Having over 120,000 exhibits, it is a wonderful insight into the lives of the pharaohs, their traditions, and great artistry.

Notable exhibits include:

The Golden Mask of Tutankhamun, one of the most famous artifacts in the world.

An extensive collection of statues, jewelry, and sarcophagi, showcasing the artistry of ancient Egyptian civilization.

(Optional) A visit to the Royal Mummy Room, where some of Egypt's most powerful rulers were preserved, including Ramses II and Queen Hatshepsut.

While guiding you, he will help you understand more about the mysteries and aura of ancient Egypt.

Visit the Historic Saladin Citadel

Then, move to Saladin Citadel, a mighty fortress that was once the center for the political and military power of Egypt. Built in the 12th century by Sultan Saladin, the citadel conveys breathtaking views of Cairo's skyline and houses several historic sites.

At the Citadel, explore:

Its stunning Mohamed Ali Mosque, also commonly called the Alabaster Mosque, with Ottoman architectural style and grand domes.

Its defensive towers and museums, which tell the tale of Egypt's military history.

Breathtaking views over Cairo for some unforgettable photographs.

A Perfect Blend of History and Culture

While on your way, there will also be time to enjoy a nice Egyptian lunch at a local restaurant. Here you can relax as you taste traditional flavors in preparation to continue your journey.

This Cairo day tour represents a highly curated opportunity to explore ancient and medieval Egypt, guided by a scholar who brings history to life. Fill those memories concerning Egypt's rich cultural heritage as you are driven back to Sokhna Port after such an unforgettable experience.
