The pyramids of Giza have been on the UNESCO world heritage list ever since 1979, a status which came due to the ancient city of Memphis and the rest of it's ensemble. Speaking of Memphis, refers to the Egypt's capital at different periods starting from the Old Kingdom to the time of Alexander the Great. The area is calmer than how Giza is portrayed, and hosts famous monuments such as the Great Pyramid of King Khufu, which is one of the last remaining wonders of the ancient world, as well as 38 other pyramids that are situated in Giza, Saqqara, Abusir, and Dahshur.

This remarkable location also has nine thousand plus monuments and tombs that date back to various eras including the Greek one. After this you can grab lunch at a local Egyptian restaurant, as Egyptian cuisine is always filled with delightful new foods and drinks. Who in this day and age hasn't heard of the world famous delicious Koshari, or the crunchy Falafel known as Taameya?

Following is our exhaustive guide to camel riding in the Pyramids area. It gives a thorough and in-depth examination of this interesting and cultural experience, replete with benefits and practical tips to meet the diverse needs and interests of readers.

Giza Pyramids Tour Including Entrance to Khufu, Camel Ride, and Lunch.

After meeting your driver in front of your Alexandria hotel, you will be transferred to Cairo and taken to see the Pyramids. The Pyramids of Giza have housed on the UNESCO world heritage list since 1979, the status that also gave them with the ancient city of Memphis along with the rest of its ensemble. Because when talking about Memphis, we actually talk about the capital city of ancient Egypt during different periods, starting from the Old Kingdom up to the reign of Alexander the Great. The area is, however, much more serene than Giza and is home to famous structures like the Great Pyramid of King Khufu, one of the last wonders of antiquity, and other 38 pyramids strewn across Giza, Saqqara, Abusir, and Dahshur. This remarkable location also has nine thousand plus monuments and tombs that date back to various eras including the Greek one.

Savor a camel ride at the Pyramids of Giza. The Pyramids of Giza is one of the most jaw dropping sites for camel riding experiences. If you want to try something different and exciting, a camel ride at the pyramids will ensure that you do not forget the memories you make there. You can also see the Saudi desert and its wonderful views and rich culture. Then you can have lunch in an Egyptian restaurant because there are always exciting new tastes and drinks waiting to be discovered in Egyptian food. Is there anyone in this day and age who has not heard of the mouth-watering Koshari and Falafel which is also popularly known as Taameya?

After the end of the day our driver will take you to Alexandria.
