You can also not miss visiting the famous towering pyramids of Giza. Each of the pyramids of the kings had a pyramid group, each of which included the pyramids of the queens, a small pyramid considered a doctrinal pyramid of the king, the Valley Temple, from which an ascending road, whose sides are carved with scenes of daily life, leads to an upper temple known as the funeral temple, and priests performed funeral and burial rites for the deceased king inside these temples. Enjoy the monuments of the Saqqara region, including the Pyramid of Onas. This pyramid is located on the southern side of the Saqqara pyramid and was built to be the tomb of King Onas, who belonged to the fifth dynasty of the Pharaonic monarchy, its chambers were inscribed with hieroglyphic inscriptions known as the Pyramid Texts, and these inscriptions are considered the first religious document in the world.
