Sound and Light Show at Giza Pyramids from Airport

Sound and light shows at many of Egypt's archaeological sites attract tourists and fans of the Pharaonic civilization with their thrilling, mysterious, and suspenseful shows.

From the pyramids of Giza to the temples of Luxor and Aswan, sound and light shows can be found at many of Egypt's archaeological sites, not to mention Qaitbay Fortress in Alexandria, which recently joined the list with a weekly show that tells the history of the most famous military fortress among the ancient Egyptian fortresses.

'Sound and Light' is a delightful journey and enchanting shows presented daily in the evening inside the Giza plateau in downtown Cairo, through which foreigners in Cairo book a ticket to enter through the Pyramids Gate to light up their hearts with magic and beauty and narrate the great Pharaonic history in a different way than the tour guides in the morning tours.
