A private guided half day trip of Cairo

The Grand Egyptian Museum (GEM) is a unique architectural and archaeological masterpiece, one of the largest museums in the world, with more than 50,000 artefacts of various sizes and shapes related to the ancient Egyptian civilisation alone, including the full display of King Tut's belongings for the first time since their discovery a hundred years ago. Enjoy a tour of this vast museum.

The museum covers an area of about 500,000 square metres and includes a number of exhibition halls, one of which is larger than many existing museums in Egypt. The museum is an integrated international cultural, cultural and entertainment edifice as the largest museum that tells the story of the history of the ancient Egyptian civilisation with the intention of attracting at least 6 million tourists per year.

Half-Day Tour of the Egyptian Museum in Cairo

Our company will provide a car to transfer you from in front of your hotel to the Grand Egyptian Museum, which the Grand Egyptian Museum (GEM) will be Egypt's gift to the world, featuring a wide range of halls with vast areas in which more than 50,000 artefacts will be displayed. The GEM's halls house artefacts from the pre-dynastic era to the Greco-Roman era, according to a state-of-the-art museum display scenario. The museum's different halls tell three main themes of the ancient Egyptian civilisation: monarchy, society, and beliefs.

The treasures of King Tutankhamun will be displayed in full for the first time at the Grand Egyptian Museum, which has allocated two of the best exhibition halls for his artefacts and more than 5,368 pieces, most importantly the mask, the throne chair, some jewellery, ornaments, textiles and clothes for the first time, in addition to some artefacts in ancient Egyptian civilisation that will enrich the museum display with this huge amount of exhibits.

After your journey to Cairo is over, you will be returned to your hotel.
