Day Trip to Cairo From Hurghada By flight

You will be transferred from your hotel in Hurghada to transfer to Hurghada Airport and then you will be picked up from Cairo International Airport to start your private tour and discover the greatest places in Giza, which is to visit the towering and huge pyramids of Giza and was built by the ancient Egyptians thousands of years ago, and despite the myths and tales that some circulate about the truth of the construction of the pyramids, which some claim that it was done by magic, elves or aliens, it is completely contrary to the proven truth which is the greatness of creativity and construction of the ancient Egyptians.

It's time to enjoy a lunch of Egyptian delicacies. Your private driver will then take you to the Egyptian Museum where a guide will provide you with information about the artefacts and statues.

You will then explore Khan El Khalili, a fascinating place with a different character, a neighbourhood that has inspired many Egyptian writers and authors, most notably Naguib Mahfouz, who wrote one of his novels set in the neighbourhood, Khan El Khalili, which was made into a cinematic film. At the end of our tour you will be transferred to Cairo Airport to return to Hurghada.
