Day Tour to Dahshur, Memphis, and Meidum from Cairo

Visit the Great Pyramids of Giza, and you will get back in time for about 200 years before the era of King Cheops, proprietor of the Great Pyramid at Giza which still amazes explorers with its glory now. Our Cairo day tours allow you to visit the sacred necropolis of the Old Kingdom capital of ancient Egypt. See the first perfect-shaped Red Pyramid and the Bent Pyramid at Dahshur, then the Pyramid of Snefru known as Meidum Pyramid, and keep your eyes stretched wide for the striking structures built 4650 years ago to endure the names of Kings and rulers of ancient Egypt who started the golden era of the Egyptian history.

Continue to see the most interesting artifacts displayed in glory at the most ancient capital in the world, Memphis City, which is known now as Mit Rahina and has an open-air museum with huge statues of King Ramses II from the New Kingdom. Then our lunch is served during Egypt Day Tours or after you finish your Cairo Trips. Important Note: you can view these sites in any sequence. We began in Dahshur, the site farthest away from Giza, and worked our way back towards the city.

The Egyptian Museum in Cairo has a large collection of artifacts and antiquities dating back to ancient Egypt and beyond.

The historical and cultural information is provided by specialized local tour guides, as part of Egypt Day Tours, which contributes to the visitors' experience and deep understanding of Egyptian history
