Day1: Say Hi from Nairobi

Welcome from Kenya, a country whose beauty defies explanation. Our agent will meet you at Nairobi's Jomo Kenyatta International Airport and take you to your hotel. Spend the night at Fairmount The Norfolk, a lovely lodge-style hotel that will satisfy all of your needs.

Day2: Explore Samburu National Reserve

Start your Kenya safari package to the Samburu National Reserve on your second day after enjoying a tasty breakfast. You'll arrive in time for lunch at your wonderful lodge, the Samburu Intrepids, and spend the evening taking a game viewing drive before returning to your lodge for dinner.

Day3: Continue exploring Samburu National Reserve

Famous over a wide range of wildlife, including the Grevy's zebra, Somali ostrich, circulated giraffe, gerenuk, and Beisa oryx, also referred to as the Samburu Special Five, you will have an extra day to explore everything that Samburu provides. A minimum of 900 elephants are present in the reserve. Mammalian predators like cheetahs, leopards, and lions are major draws.

Day4: A Trip to Pejeta Conservancy

On your fourth day, depart for the Pejeta Conservancy, which offers views of Mount Kenya. This majestic giant creates a magical atmosphere by casting shadows across the landscape. You will drive in search of the Big Five, explore the waterholes, and visit the chimpanzee reserves while you are there. Even though you're on a safari, you can still live in luxury; Sweetwaters Tented Camp has everything you need for a comfortable overnight stay.

Day5: A visit to Lake Nakuru National Park

Your journey continues to Lake Nakuru National Park on the fifth day. This shallow, alkaline lake is well known around the world for its assortment of birds, which gives the lake a pinkish hue from a distance. The magnificent Acacia trees surrounding the lake can be seen surrounded by hippos, buffalo, waterbucks, giraffes, and other wildlife. You will spend the night at Flamingo Hill Tented Camp, which is furnished with natural woods, wrought iron accents, soothing safari colours, and crisp linens. Every tent in the camp has been carefully planned to maximise comfort.

Day6: an exploration day at The Maasai Mara National Park

At last, the Maasai Mara welcomes you to explore its allures on your sixth and seventh days. Take advantage of the two extra days at the Mara Intrepids Camp by visiting the Maasai Mara, home to the Big Five and other amazing animals. the most breathtaking when millions of wildebeests, zebras, and gazelles migrate from Tanzania's Serengeti and the Mara River to the grasslands. Your days will be full with game drives in the morning and evening.

Day7: Continue exploring The Maasai Mara National Park

Enjoy another exciting day of exploration at the Maasai Mara, where your guide will take you on thoughtfully designed tours to give you a taste of everything the area has to offer, or simply take some time to unwind in peace and quiet.

Day 8: Saying goodbyes from Nairobi

Say goodbye to the Maasai Mara and leave to Nairobi after breakfast at the Camp. going back to Nairobi by driving the Great Rift Valley, passing by the lakes Elementaita and Naivasha, as well as Mount Longonot, a dormant volcano. Rising to the cliff and look out for groups of gazelle and giraffe.
