Magnificent Wadi Al Disah Tour From Al Ula

Explore the magnificent sights during this beautiful trip to the magnificent mountain valley of Wadi Al Dessa, located in the Tabuk region in northwestern Saudi Arabia. You'll see why Al Disah, which is also called "the valley of palm trees" as soon as you get there. You will see huge sandstone cliffs and pillars around the lush valley bottom, offering plenty of chances for exploring. Wadi al-Disah is the ideal location to unwind in nature and get away from society. Just two of the various activities available here are hiking and joining Saudi groups for picnics at the valley's entrance to enjoy tea and the peace and quiet.

Wadi Al Disah Day Tour

We will drive you 260 kilometers to the hilly Wadi Al Disah area in the southwest of the province of Tabuk. The distance from Tabuk is 4000 square meters.

The Prince Mohammed bin Salman Natural Reserve is where Wadi Al Disah is primarily situated. Al Disah Valley is considered a mountaineer's paradise with towering rocky columns and freshwater springs. It is known for its mountain features. Numerous archaeological monuments can be found there, including the façade of Nabataean tombs and the remnants of walls that once had Arabic and Nabataean writing in Kufic script.

You will be transferred back to your hotel in Al Ula. There is a lot to see, taste, and purchase in Tabuk, so if you have time, let us know what you would like to include in your schedule, and we will make the arrangements.
