After a delightful lunch, continue your journey to Saqqara to explore the Step Pyramid of King Djoser, the oldest stone monument built by humans, situated in Egypt's largest archaeological site. Enjoy panoramic vistas of the Dahshur pyramids, including the Bent Pyramid and Red Pyramid commissioned by King Snefru, the father of King Khufu. Explore the pyramid of Teti and Saqqara's noble tombs without requiring an extra ticket, gaining insights into daily life in ancient Egypt.

Conclude your tour in Memphis, just 20 minutes from Saqqara, where you'll explore an outdoor museum showcasing ancient relics and statues from the former pharaonic capital. Don't miss the colossal alabaster sphinx and the statue of Ramses II, carved from a massive 80-ton block of marble.
