

Edfu and Kom Ombo Temples Tour

Price Starting From : $90

Day Trip
Egypt
Luxor to Aswan

Our Luxor Tour to Edfu and Kom Ombo Temples provides the opportunity to discover two exceptional ancient sanctuaries along the Nile River valley. In the morning, a guide will pick you up from your Luxor accommodation for the scenic drive.

Your first stop is the riverside town of Edfu, home to the renowned Temple of Horus. Revered as one of Egypt's finest preserved temples dedicated to the falcon god, intricate carvings and statuary offer valuable religious insights.

Next on the itinerary is Kom Ombo Temple situated high above the waterfront. Unique for honouring both Horus and the crocodile deity Sobek, its distinctive twin design is impressive. Panoramic views at the location further enhance the experience.

Accompanied by an expert guide sharing illuminating historical details, transportation allows relaxation between sites at Luxor, Edfu and Kom Ombo. This all-inclusive excursion presents a special opportunity to explore two remarkably intact temples nestled along the Nile Valley landscape.

Edfu and Kom Ombo Temples Trip from Luxor

Embark on an exciting journey with a professional guide from Cairo Top Tours, starting from your hotel in Luxor. Your adventure begins with a drive of about an hour and a half to the Temple of Edfu. This well-preserved temple, dedicated to the falcon god Horus, dates back to the Ptolemaic period between 237 and 57 B.C. and honors Horus, the son of Isis and Osiris, key figures in ancient Egyptian mythology.

Next, you'll travel to the town of Kom Ombo in Aswan to explore the remarkable double temple there. Positioned on a high ground overlooking the Nile, the Kom Ombo Temple features a unique dual design, dedicated to Sobek, the crocodile god of fertility.

After your visits, you'll return to Luxor for a delightful lunch at a quality local restaurant before being dropped off at your hotel.
