Giza Pyramids Tour and felucca ride from Sokhna Port

Your Ain Sokhna port shore excursion to the Giza Pyramids and Nile River promises to be a captivating journey through Egypt's rich history and culture. Your professional guide will be waiting to greet you at the port, ready to embark on this exciting adventure.

First, you'll visit the iconic Giza Pyramids, marveling at the sheer scale and grandeur of these ancient wonders. You'll have the opportunity to explore the three magnificent pyramids, including the towering Pyramid of Cheops, which required an astounding 2.3 million blocks, each weighing 2.5 tons, to construct.

Next, you'll encounter the majestic Pyramid of King Chephren, the successor to Cheops, which stands taller and has more inclined faces, creating the impression of being the largest of the Giza Pyramids. Finally, you'll visit the Pyramid of King Mycerinus, where inscribed artifacts have revealed the high degree of intelligence and craftsmanship of the ancient Egyptian sculptors.

No visit to Giza would be complete without seeing the iconic Sphinx, the mysterious figure with the head of a man and the body of a lion. You'll also have the chance to explore the Valley Temple, where the mummification of the pharaohs' bodies took place.

After your immersive experience at the Giza Plateau, you'll have the opportunity to enjoy a serene one-hour felucca ride along the Nile River. This tranquil journey will allow you to soak in the beauty of this iconic waterway, which has been a central part of Egyptian culture and history for millennia.

If you're interested in delving deeper into Egypt's ancient history, you may also opt to explore the Coptic Christian sites in Cairo, where you can discover some of the earliest churches in the country.

As your day in Egypt draws to a close, you'll return to your cruise ship in Sokhna Port, carrying with you the treasured memories of your captivating journey through the grandeur of the Giza Pyramids and the serene beauty of the Nile River.
